

EDINBURGH FOOD PROJECT

Warehouse Volunteer

Running eight foodbanks in the North West, Central and East parts of Edinburgh requires a turnover of nearly 100,000 tonnes of food a year – all of which is donated by schools, faith groups, companies and individuals. All our donations need to be sorted, dated and made up in to food packs. We are therefore looking for an enthusiastic and committed volunteer to help in our warehouse.

Attributes, Skills and Experience Required

- A passion for helping those in food poverty
- Ability to work as part of a team
- Ability to complete basic physical tasks

Commitment

The Warehouse Volunteer will be expected to volunteer weekly.

Responsibilities

We are looking for people to take on specific roles within the warehouse, to help ensure all tasks are completed on a weekly basis. You can choose either task to complete on your chosen time slot.

- Toiletry/household/pet food packs
- Baby food and toiletry packs

If your specific task doesn't need done you will be expected to help with other warehouse tasks such as dating and sorting stock and making up food parcels.

If this is a position you feel you would be well suited for please contact Katie Quinn, Volunteer Manager: katiequinn@edinburghfoodproject.org or 0131 444 0030
